Sub: Timely and Quality Redressal of Public Grievances in CPGRAMS/EPFIGMS Portal -reg.

Madam / Sir,

Please refer to D.O. letter no. Z-14025/05/2016-PG (Pt.) dated 27.11.2017 received from Secretary, L&E regarding the speedy and quality redressal of Public Grievances being given highest priority and importance by the Government of India and the pendency of PGs is being reviewed at the highest level by Hon'ble Prime Minister of India on regular basis under PRAGATI and e-Samiksha. (copy enclosed)

In this regard, the following observations has been raised as under:-

1. It has come to notice that there is a lack of sufficient manpower and hardware infrastructure in the PGHS Cells in the field Offices which is causing delay and difficulty in the efficient handling and timely disposal of Public Grievances. Therefore, it is of utmost importance that the Public Grievance division/cells should be strengthened by providing sufficient manpower, equipped with latest infrastructure & hardware (viz. Computers/Scanners/Fax etc.) wherever needed.
2. Our endeavour should be that all public grievances are redressed not only within 20 days but also the quality of redressal/disposal should be high and up to the satisfaction of the aggrieved parties. Hence, all efforts should be made to ensure that while reviewing the pendency and disposal of grievances in your Office feedback must be obtained from the aggrieved persons through suitable mechanism on the quality of disposal/satisfaction level and the same should be analyzed regularly for ensuring further action and effecting systemic improvements.
3. It has also come to notice that some public grievances are unnecessarily kept pending for want of report from an Enforcement Officer. Therefore RPFC, Incharge are directed to post an E.O. in PGHS Cell and to ensure that the Public Grievances should be handled speedily and effectively and all efforts should be made to redressed Public Grievance within 20 days from the date of receipt by EPFO or MOL & E.

P.T.O.

4. All ACC Zones and RPFCs/OIC are requested to take immediate actions for carrying out the systemic reforms in service delivery mechanism aiming to reduce the number of PG through improved and effective service delivery to the subscriber/complainant. RPFC, In-charge shall personally review Public Grievances at his level on weekly basis and ACC, Zones shall review Public Grievances at his level on fortnightly basis, so that no grievance be kept unredressed at the level of RO's beyond 20 days on the PG Portal.

5. It is therefore requested to send ATR by 11.12.2017 for onward submission to the Hon'ble Secretary, L&E, according.

This may be treated as Top Priority

Encl.: As above

Yours faithfully,

(Dr. S.K. Thakur)

D.O. No. Z-14025/05/2016-PG(Pt)

Dear Joy,

As you are aware that the speedy and quality redressal of Public Grievances is being given highest priority and importance by the Government of India and the pendency of PGs is being reviewed at the highest level by Hon'ble Prime Minister of India on regular basis under PRAGATI and e-Samiksha.

2. During deliberations and interactions in the review meetings, it has been brought to my notice that there is a lack of sufficient manpower and hardware infrastructure in the PG Cells in some offices/organizations which is causing delay and difficulty in the efficient handling and timely disposal of public grievances. Therefore, it is of utmost importance that the public grievance divisions/cells under your control should be strengthened by providing sufficient manpower, equipped with latest infrastructure & hardware (viz. Computers/Scanners/Fax etc.) wherever needed.

3. Our endeavor should be that all public grievances are redressed not only within 30 days but also the quality of redressal/disposal should be high and up to the satisfaction of the aggrieved parties. Hence, all efforts should be made to ensure that while reviewing the pendency and disposal of grievances in your divisions/organizations, feedback must be obtained from the aggrieved persons through suitable mechanism on the quality of disposal/satisfaction level and the same should be analyzed regularly for ensuring further action and effecting systemic improvements.

4. It has also been observed that at times, some public grievances are unnecessarily kept pending despite clear policy guidelines/position on such issues. Therefore, it is imperative that the respective Bureau Heads/Head of the Organizations should take personal interest in resolving such issues and ensure that Public Grievances for want of clarification on policy issues do not lie pending. It must be ensured that the Public Grievances should be handled speedily and effectively and all efforts should be made to dispose of any Public Grievance received in the Ministry within 30 days.
