Sub: - O & M meeting conducted by CPFC on 02.03.09 at Head Office - regarding.

Sir,

Please refer to the CPFC circular no. CSD IV/CPFC/Circulars/2009/75216-75466 dated 7th January 2009 wherein it was mentioned that, in all the field offices, the customers are to be attended in a proper and courteous manner and all the phone calls received therein are to be attended to without any laxity.

- 2) In the 98th O & M meeting, a discussion on the above mentioned area of public grievance was taken by the CPFC and CPFC has expressed a serious view of the poor functioning of the offices in the area of grievances and public interface.
- 3) In the meeting, CPFC has emphasized following points to be complied with by the field offices:
 - RPFC-I / OICs are to be held responsible and accountable for redressal of public grievances and to be considered the Nodal grievance Officer in the matter.
 - Periodic inspection related to grievances and customer services is carried out in subordinate offices; so that offices are alert and respond to the subscribers' problem in positive manner.
 - CPGRAMS cases are to be attended to on priority basis.

- Calls from CSD Head Office are to be attended without fail.
- Use of e-mail to be preferred over fax for information delivery to the Head Office.

4) All grievances which are pending for more than six months to be assessed and reviewed by RPFC-I in charge of the Region himself and be finalised/resolved. A list containing such cases is enclosed for your ready reference. A report in respect of each of these cases be submitted to undersigned by 31.03.2009

5) Further, in order to address the grievances of the members/subscribers; officer in charge of field offices are to randomly call ten subscribers /members over phone everyday to obtain their feedback. The feedback so obtained be utilized effectively to set right the service delivery mechanism in their respective offices.

Action taken report may please be submitted by 10.04.2009.

Yours faithfully,

(A. Kulshrestha)

Additional Central Provident Fund Commissioner (CSD)
