Sub: Filing of SLP before Hon'ble Supreme Court – reg.

Sir,

Kind attention is invited to Head Office letter No.LC/2(247) Misc/46898 dated 30.8.2005, LC/2(623)08/KR/36153 dated 12.9.2008 and LC/2(635)09/MP/23908 dated 29.7.2010 communicating therein the detailed guidelines and procedure for submitting proposal of filing SLP to Head Quarters.

2. However, Several instances have come to the notice of Head Office that the proposal for filing SLP are still being sent by field offices in a very casual manner i.e. either without availing the opportunity of filing appeal before the Division Bench against Single Bench Order of High Court or are received in incomplete form without enclosing required documents or some are even sent belatedly after lapse of the stipulated period for filing SLP. In all these condition HO is unable to take appropriate action.

3. It is therefore emphasized that the proposal for filing SLP should invariably be sent in time and with complete set of documents required for filing SLP. It is once again reiterated that the proposal should be sent only by RPFC-I, In charge of the region or OIC in case of SROs, after thorough examination of the substantial point of law involved, complete with all required documents and papers, specific comments and well within the time period prescribed for filing SLP. All are requested to strictly adhere to these instructions.

Yours faithfully,

(P.K. Udgata)

Additional Central PF Commissioner (Compliance)
