Sub:- Defending EPFAT Cases - Reg.

Sir,

It has been brought to the notice of this office that:

1. The field offices are not forwarding para wise comments to the panel advocates to the appeals filed at EPFAT leading to non filing of counters in time, adverse comments from Presiding Officer and delay in disposal of cases.
2. The supporting documents required to be enclosed with the Counter Affidavits are also not forwarded creating further delay in the process.
3. Frequent complaints are received from the advocates about nonpayment of their bills. RPFC/OICs must ensure that bills are not kept pending and are processed and paid to the advocates as per rules. It should also be ensured that in case of bills being not admissible, the status has to be informed to the concerned advocate with due justification/rule position.
4. Therefore, all are requested to take suitable necessary action to forward submission of parawise comments to the advocates enclosing all necessary documents/supporting papers and early processing of the legal fee bills of panel advocates under intimation to them.

Yours faithfully,

(P.K. Udgate)
