Sub – Proper handling of EPFAT cases – regarding

Sir,

It has been observed that the department is not being properly represented in EPF Appellate Tribunal and also reply/counter-reply etc. are not being filed properly and/or in time. Instances have also come to the notice that even panel Advocates of EPF Appellate Tribunal are not appearing in some cases.

The Central Provident Fund Commissioner as well as the Hon'ble EPF Appellate Tribunal has taken a very serious view of non-appearance of advocates and non-filing of reply within stipulated time.

In view of the above, it is directed that henceforth, OICs of the regions are to ensure that in all the cases the EPFO is properly represented through empanelled advocates and that suitable replies/counter-replies/supplementary should be filed within time. Any lapse in this regard shall be viewed very seriously.

Yours' faithfully,

19/02/2016

(Rajesh Bansal)

Additional Central P F Commissioner (HQ)
