Subject:- Timelines for filing SLPs/Appeals-Regarding

Sir,

Ministry of Labour and Employment vide its letter dated 03.07.2018 has forwarded a copy of DO letter dated 25.11.2016 of Cabinet Secretary, containing instructions regarding prescribed times for filing SLPs/Appeals in courts. Cabinet Secretary vide its DO letter dated 25.11.2016 has specifically pointed out that there is an urgent need to adhere with the limitation period of 90 days for filing SLPs before the Hon'ble Supreme Court. Cabinet Secretariat has also fixed a timelines for filing SLPs/appeals before the Hon'ble Supreme Court for all Ministry/department.

Accordingly, all the fields offices are directed to strictly adhere the limitation period prescribed in the Supreme Court Rules and arrange for completing different stages for filing of SLPs in the following time limit:-

1.	Examination of the proposal and decision for filing SLPs by Regional Office and its forwarding to Zonal ACC	10 Days
2.	Examination and taking administrative decision by Zonal ACC and forwarding of proposals to Head Office	05 days
3.	Drafting of SLPs and forwarding the same to the concerned field office by advocate	15 Days
4.	Approval of Draft SLP by the concerned field office or concerned division at HO, as the case may be	05 days
5.	Preparing paper book and filing	10 Days

For filling statutory appeals, reviews etc. where limitation period is 60 days or 30 days, the above timelines may be reduced accordingly.

Proposal not sent in above timelines will not be approved by Headquarters.
