All Regional Provident Fund Commissioners
In-charge of the Regions

Sub: Setting up of Special Benches and Special Courts for EPFO cases- reg.

Sir,

A review of Court cases of EPFO reveals that a large no. of cases are pending before various courts. In certain cases, the matters are sub-judice for years together. While non-representation and lack of pursuit on the part of EPFO is one of the reasons for pendency, the huge backlog with the respective Courts is also a major impediment in expeditious disposal of cases. The need for setting up of Special Courts and Special Benches has therefore, been felt for expediting the disposal of our cases under litigation. The Petition Committee of Lok Sabha has also emphasized on this issue.

You are, therefore, directed to take up the matter with the respective High Courts of your State/Region for setting up Special Courts/ Special Benches for hearing EPFO cases. While taking up the issue, the social security aspect and mandate of the EPF& MP Act be specifically highlighted for better appreciation of matter by Hon'ble High Court.

Action taken and developments in the matter be informed to Head Office through ACC(Zones).

Yours faithfully,

(K. C. Pandey)
